COMMERCIAL FERTILIZERS

What to Buy

That Commercial Fertilizers are essential to the successful production of crops can no longer be questioned. This has been settled by actual experience of the most successful farmers North and South, as well as upon the highest scientific authority.

The question therefore for the consideration of the farmer is, what to buy, in the shape of manure

The answer to this question is: What has stood the test? What guano stands before the farmers of North Carolina as a practical success? We answer, the Pine Island Ammoniated Phosphate.

That it is a success we have certificates from leading farmers in every section where it has been used—men who have used Commercial Manures for years and make money by it.

We don't dare say it does not pay to make manure at home. It does pay. And no one can be successful in farming unless he makes manure. When he has made all the manure possible the deficiency must be supplied by Commercial Fertilizers, for no one who cultivates cotton for profit (and that is the only profitable crop that can be raised in our section) can make on his farm a sufficiency of manure for his crops.

We offer the Pine Island Guano to supply this deficiency, in the fullest confidence that it is the best and cheapest fertilizer sold in the State.

We have arrangements for supplying it in any quantity, in good strong sacks, so that it can be transported any distance without loss

The season for planting is now nearly at hand and we hope to receive all orders early so that they can be booked for immediate shipment from the Rail Road Warehouse thus saving the expense of drayage and handling.

Most Respectfully,
M. T. LEACH & CO.

We desire to establish agencies at all the principal Rail Road stations in the cotton section.

With good reliable agents satisfactory terms will be made.

——During the month of February there were five interments in Oakwood Cemetery, four adults and one infant.

——The city was remarkably quiet yesterday, and there were no occurrences worthy of note, ——The Maryland Fertilizing and Manufacturing Company, paid tax for "Cotton Food" from March 31, 1879 to March 31 1880.

——The freezing public will be glad to learn that Mr. R. J. Harris will have a cargo of coal to-morrow. Orders should be left at Watson's Grocery store.

——The seasons of spring and winter were thrown in juxtaposition in a very trying manner on Saturday and Sunday, one day having of summer's warmth, almost, and the next being as chill as if the wind blew off a snow bank, which it did, for there was a heavy snow fall at Richmond, Virginia.

——Complaints continue to be made about pistol shooting on the streets at night, particularly in the eastern portion of the city, and some one ask if the jurisdiction of the police cannot be so extended as to take in the old fair grounds, which is the hot-bed of disorder here. The authorities would do well to think the idea over.

ATTENTION RALEIGH LIGHT INFANTRY.—You are hereby ordered to meet at the Armory this evening at 8 o'clock for the transaction of very important business. E. F. SMITH, Acting Orderly Sergeant.

MARRIED.—On the morning of the 26th ult., at the residence of the bride's father, 6 miles East of Raleigh, Mr. William Watts, of Plymouth, Devon, England, to Miss Euvinia, youngest daughter of Mr. A. J. Poole, of St. Mary's township, Wake county. No cards.

THE SKATING RINK.—The floor of the rink is being repaired, and will not be ready for use until Thursday evening. At that time there will be given a masque, in which only twenty-two couples of skaters will be allowed on the floor, all to be costumed. The public will be admitted as spectators.

DISTILLING WHISKEY.—U. S. Commissioner T. R. Purnell yesterday had before him one Jackson Barker, who was accused of having assisted Messrs. Jones, the famous female illicit distiller of this county. Jackson proved his innocent ignorance of this offence, and that he was a mere employee at the place. When told of his offence he appeared to be shocked, and so the tender hearted Commissioner let him go, as no proof of his criminality was adduced.

THE DIME PARTY.—The ladies of the Second Presbyterian church this evening give their Dime Party, at Mr. L. E. Heartt's. They ask those who wish to aid in the good work of assisting them to complete thier church to pay them a vist. All such may be assured of spending a pleasant evening. Admission will be a dime. Members of the Legislature are invited to attend, and the party will not close until after the hour of adjournment.

THE PATHFINDERS.—The performance of the Milton Jaspers at Tucker Hall last evening was quite jolly, a regular extravaganza in fact, and gave the audience some good laughs. The entertainment is continuous, and very varied. The troupe appear again this evening, in their usual specialities, with an entire change of programme. A full orchestra will also be in attendance.

THE EXCURSION TO BEAUFORT.—The Legislators returned in safety from their trying and adventurous trip to the ocean, to see not the "elephant" but the "whale." They saw him and unanimously voted him a "big thing." The party went down to the port of Beafort on Sunday, and some of the straight-minded who did not partake of these Sabath pleasures, declared that after passing the famous Sunday train law, it was just a shade inconsistent for the others to take this little tour on that day. However, what do they care, they have seen the briny deep and become very old salts indeed, and return to their fresh water friends full of reminiscenssa of the "big pond," which will furnish subject for much talk for a long time to come.

Although we have heard persons remark—"it is worth its weight in old"—still Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup is to be had at all Drug stores for the mail price of 25 cents a bottle.

The road from Mrs. Henry Hinton's on the Tarboro road to the Oaks was, upon petition discontinued.

A road from Apex to Barney Jones' was opened and that portion of the road from Chas. Lawrence's to a point near Mr. C. Utley's was discontinued.

Several committees were appointed to let out the building of bridges and relief from working on the roads and paying poll tax was extended to parties physically disabled.

OUR LAW MAKERS.

SENATE.

MONDAY, March 3, 1879.

The Senate was called to order at 10 a. m., President Robinson in the chair. Prayer by Rev. Dr. Mashall.

Indefinite leave of absence was granted to Brower; called away on important business.

AGRICULTURAL LIEN LAW.

Senate bill to repeat sections 19 and 20, cap. 65, Battle's Revisal, providing for an agricultural lien law was now reached.

Mr. King, who introduced the bill, advocated its passage. It has been found to work badly in many respects, and proved to be a curse to the small farmer in leading him in habits of idleness and extravigance by enabling him to mortgage what he had not got—the crops he was yet to raise. The bill did not propose to interfere with the landlord and tenant lien, but to bring about a change in the relations between merchant and farmer, and save to the latter from 50 to 100 per cent. on his supplies. In his county the merchants desired this change, as it tended to cash sales. Mr King spoke at length and said that his bill had received the unanimous endorsement of the committee on agriculture, with one exception.

Mr. Snow opposed its passage.

Mr. Mebane favored the bill.

Mr. Austin said that in his county the stauuchest farmers, with plenty of stock and lands, gave liens and wanted no interference in their mode of doing business. The poor were now in a condition deplorable enough, but the repeal of this law would render them worse still.

Mr. Leach was satisfied the repeal of the law would prove unfortunate for the land-owner and the laborer. The plan proposed by Mr. King had been attempted in South Carolina and failed. Besides, said Mr. Leach, it tends to degrade labor and reduce the small farmes to the condition of a mere field hand or that of a tramp. The law as it stood gave the poor man a little credit, and gave scope for enterprise and industry.

Mr. McEachern concurred in the views of Mr. Leach. He thought the farmers of the State were running the whole State machine. At all events they took a lively hand in it and were capable of attending to their own interests. He had seen nor heard of no petition or memorial from them asking the repeal of the law under discussion.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

MONDAY, March 3, 1879.

The House met at 1 o'clock, and a prayer was offered by Rev. M. W. Marshall, D.D., of Christ Church.

After some preliminaries, the House went into Committee of the Whole on the Machinery Act, which came up as a special order. It was considered by sections. This provides for the collection of taxes by the State and the counties.

Section 1 was adopted with slight verbal amendment.

Sections 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7 and 8 were adopted.

Section 9 was amended so as to exempt wearing apparel from taxation, and then approved.

Section 10, 11 and 12 were approved

At this point Mr. McGehee said that in the 60 sections of the bill only nine changes were made, and of these five had been already acted on, and suggested that it was now sufficient to consider the four remaining alterations, which were contained in sections. 13 14, 17 and 53. The House agreed and ordered these sections to be first considered.

Section 13 was so amended as to include the Knights of Honor, and the Good Samaritans.

Section 14 was amended by striking out "money" and inserting "growing crop."

Section 17 was adopted.

Section 53 was amended slightly and adopted.

The Committee then rose and reported progress, and the bill with the amendments named, was adopted, and passed its readings.

The House, at 4.30, adjourned until 10 a. m. to-morrow.

Repeal the Section.

Correspondence of the News.

The section of the Oealfield Railroad charter appropriating $50,000, evidently passed under a misapprehension. It received a minority of the votes in each house, and certainly does not express the will of the people, or of this General Assembly. Why does not some one introduce a bill and repeal that section? The friends of the road who are Democrats, ought to aid the repeal of that section. No pride of opinion certainly will influence them to oppose a repeal so palpably in the interest of the party. X.

Potter Committee.

WASHINGTON D. C. March 5.—Saturday the chairman of the Potter investiting Committee submitted the report which he had prepared to the Committee and it was adopted by a vote of six democrats to three republicans, Butler being absent. The three republicans present, Hiscock, Cox and Reed will prepare a minority report. Butler will draw up a separate statement, giving his views in reference to the bargain with the Hayes party by which the democratic member of the Committee who was chairman of the Sub-Committee which sat in Louisiana has also prepared a report. Potter's report is necessarily long as it deals with all the points that have been before the Committee except the cipher despatches which will be made subject of a separate report and presented to the Committee to-morrow. Mr. Potter's report is regarded by the democrats who have proved it as singularly impartial and judicial. It is entirely devoid, both of rhetorical ornamentation and vituperative denunciation, and derives its force solely from a close legical deduction of facts presented to the Committee. Some of the democrats regard it as wanting in color or not so strongly expressed as the facts warrant, and it is not unlikely that some members of the Committee belonging to the party will present an additional expression to their views more vigorously. The report opens with an introduction which sets forth what it was proper for congress to investigate and what not, and the difficulty of conducting an investigation into conspiracies which have been successfully carried out while the successful party remains in power. It admits that the confession of conspirators who have become dissatisfied is worth little but points to the facts not generally understood that about the essential features of the election and canvass in Florida and Louisiana there is no substantial dispute before the committee, the republicans having called no witnesses in Florida at all, and few in Louisiana except as to the conduct of the visiting statesmen and about intimidation. It dismisses entirely testimony of Anderson Jenks, Mrs. Jenks, Weber and that class of witnesses, and deals with the case upon the general and controlling facts alone. Report is divided into 3 parts. First of which refers to Florida secondly to Louisiana and 3d to the alleged forged and electoral certificate, beginning with Florida. It cites the law directing electors to be appointed by the votes cast and claims that the Tilden electors having received a majority of the votes cast in this State were thereby necessarily entitled to be declared elected, and that the canvassing board by rejecting without warrant of law a portion of the votes so as to show a majority for Hayes unlawfully counted Tilden out. The canvassing board it recites delayed this announcement until the morning of the day on which the electors were to meet, and voted so that although the action was instantly taken to oust the Hayes electors by the Tilden electors, no decision could be had until the Hayes electors had met same day at noon and voted. The report then recites the judgment of the Supreme court which subsequently decided that the Hayes electors were not elected nor entitled to vote for the State, and that the Tilden electors were and also the judgment of the Court in the action brought by Drew, the Democratic candidate for Governor to obtain a recanvass where the court directed a recanvass and decided that the returning board in refusing to count the votes cast, had defrauded Drew and unlawfully seated Stearnes. The legislature of the State thereupon directed a recanvass of the electoral vote in accordance with this decision of the Supreme court, the Judges of which were republicans and the recanvass showed the Tilden electors chosen. The Governor then issued his certificate to the Tilden electors as the true electors but the electoral commission refused to consider the judgment of the court, the action of the legislature and the certificate given by the Governor in favor of Tilden electors and held that it could not take notice of any action by the State after the 6th of December. The report draws attention to the fact that such a wrong might be repeated in any state at any presidential election by the canvassers withholding their announcement of the result of the election until the day fixed for the meeting of the Electoral College and then declare persons who had never been voted for at all to be electors—when according to this decision they would be entitled irrevocably to cast the vote of the State. It therefore recommended a law providing that where there was dispute as to who were the real electors, the judgment of its court of last resort, if certified to congress before the meeting of the two houses of congress to receive and count the electoral vote, shall be conclusive as to the right of the disputing electors and of which vote from the state shall be counted unless the two houses of congress shall otherwise agree to the report, then argues that the report of the canvassing board was not only illegal but fraudulent and cites the instance in which they rejected democratic votes on unwarranted grounds and refused to reject fraudulent republican votes as illustrating this—it deals at length with the claim of the Republicans that they were entitled to the vote of the State on the face of the returns by reason of the Dreger fraud by which a bogus return from Baker County was furnished the canvassing board which they at first rejected but which after they were ordered to count the vote as cast, they fraudulently accepted in place of the true return. It then deals with the conduct of the visiting statesmen and particularly that of Mr. Noyes as contrasted with that of Gen Francis C. Barlow whose integrity, independence and fidelity to all his obligations, and at the same time his justice, fairness and truth the report especially commends.

In regard to Louisiana the report begins with a reference to the anomalous power possed by the returning board which it says never before existed elsewhere. Under it the electors and returning officers held the grossest power over the receiving and counting of votes—under the pretext that the color line divided the political parties they had used this power to fraudulently count the state for the republicans and had been exposed by the republican committee of the 43rd congress which had reported that the whites and blacks of the state being equal and some of the blacks and all of the whites having voted for the democrats in 1874, the state has necessarily been carried by them although counted for the republicans—Hereupon the republicans set about a false census in which they madeit appear that there were 25 000 more black voters in the State than whites and, as illustrating the fraudulent nature of this census the report refers to the fact that while this census reported but 57 000 colored men women and children in New Orleans it made out of them nearly 25 000 colored voters. It is these instances the fraudulent registration that was based upon the fraudulent census, whereby it was made to appear that the registered Republican voters exceed the white voters in the State more than 25,000 while actually there were no more, and the refusal of the authorities to correct this false registration in cases where its falseness was pointed out. From this the report proceeds to touch upon the directions given by the Republican campaign committee to the election officers requiring them to return the votes according to the census, that is, stating that the colored vote by that census in a certain parish was so much and that they were expected to return a Republican vote corresponding to that, if they were ever expected to have any reward or preferment. Notwithstanding this organized fraud, says the report when the election was over the Democrats had a majority as returned by the Republican election officers of ten thousand. The vote polled being the largest ever polled in the State and larger in proportion than that of other States. The Republican officers made returns of the vote accordingly and declared that the election was perfectly peaceful and fair. The conspirators in order to overthrow this majority usurped powers not given to them. The report then deals with questions of intimidation and endeavors to show how it was utterly impossible for Democrats to gain anything by it because the Returning Boards had been created on purpose to neutralize any such action by throwing out votes in localities where it should prevail. As to the conspiracy in East Feliciana parish, the report states that after the Democrats had got control of the negro vote there Kellogg and Anderson, who were the Supervisors, wanted to have no election and Anderson fraudulently ran away with that view, meaing thereby to throw the parish out as Grand parish had been thrown out by the Supervisor of Registration, absenting himself on election day, notwithstanding the other officers held the election and made due return of the vote. The Democrats in East Feliciana, knowing that they had captured the negro vote lured Anderson to go back and hold the election. The Republicans then hit upon a new plan and directed their frends in the parish not to vote. They sent out word to them not to come to the polls and refused to permit any tickets to be used or printed for them, and exercised their influence to withhold their own vote entirely. 18,000 registered votes were cast notwithstanding which with the four thousand and 500 which Anderson had prevented from being registered made about twenty-three thousand Democratic votes, whereas the whole vote of the Parrish at previous elections both sides had not exceeded 25,000. The republicans withheld casting any vote at all and subsequently made a claim that such was the state of terrorism existing at the time of the election that none on their side could vote. It refers very briefly to the alleged bargain by which Noyes who had 3,000 votes less than Packard could count in while Packard went out, and mentions Mr. Sherman's effort to prove intimidation pointing out that the evidence was not produced whenever the committee offered to receive it how repeatedly it had been offered and how repeatedly they were met by some excuse for not producing it, how they had examined many of the witnesses that were before the returning board who in almost every instance recited and explained how they came to make their false affidavit in the first place and how such statements as they made before the returning board were totally unfounded. It then refers to the Sherman letter in regard to which it simply states the facts as they stand attempting to show that the letter was actually written and largely influenced political action in Louisiana, and drawing attention to attempt on the part of Mrs. Jenks, whose husband and brother are employes of the treasury department, to induce the Committee to produce a forged letter in the interest of Mr. Sherman. The Florida portion of the report is followed by a list of all the persons connected with the election who have been appointed to office, and the Louisiana by a still longer list of the persons in that State appointed to office.

The third part of the report deals with the forged electoral certificate, and attempts to show how the republicans believing a new electoral certificate was necessary, and how defective the first certificate was under the constitution and which the Vice-President refused, secretly manufactured another and how they antedated it and made it in the paper and printing to resemble the one previously made, how they had very little time to prepare it, and how it was impossible to get all the elections in New Orleans to sign it within that time. That therefore it becomes a necessity to forge a signature to the triplicate papers, there were eighteen forged signatures which were attached on Dec. 30th, in a small upper room in the Senate building in charge of Conquest Clarke. How the making of this second certificate was concealed until it was produced before Congress, or how when it was referred to the commission it was not read but ordered to be printed and the printer who changed, and the electoral commission were served with two copies of the forged certificate perfect in form and no copy of the genuine defective certificate, how after the commission had decided the record of commission was changed so that the forged, which was really, was before the commission was suppressed and the record made to show as if the real, defective certificate had been considered and passed upon the report, then recites how all the persons connected with the business have been appointed to offices and the suspicious circumstances connected with the appointment of some particularly (pointing out that Kellogg and Clarke his private Secretary) were privy to the forgeries, and the latter is now a clerk in the Treasury. The report winds up with a refereece to the danger of returning boards and the yet greater danger of controlling elections and protecting canvassing boards by federal troops and above all to the danger with which our country is threatened by reason of the enormous patronage centred in the presidency, which makes the presidential office a prize so great that in order to control it the grossest violations of the law and frauds may be expected on the part of those who desire to profit by that patronage. It concludes with the statement that the full effect was not given to the electoral votes of Florida and Louisiana, that Noyes Sherman and others encouraged this result that the second certificate from Louisiana was forged as to two of its names, Kellogg and Clarke being privy to it and that Tilden and Hendricks received a true majority of the electoral vote, and were the real choice of the people of the United States at the last Presidential election.

DAILY NEWS

TUESDAY, MARCH 4, 1879.

HUSSEY & JORDAN, Prop's.

JOHN B. HUSSEY, - Editor.

A Novel Investigation--An Official Recognition of the Caucus.

When men become mad they are apt to make themselves ridiculous, and sometimes to act illogically. Our friend the Senator from Macon, (called by his friends the young giant from Macon) got into some trouble with the New York Times and in his agitation must have fancied himself a whole railroad.

He immediately, and by a process of logic analogous to that which prompts a kitten when some one treads upon her tail to scratch whatever unoffending object lies in front of her, introduced a resolution which is, in effect, to investigate what motives impel a certain daily paper here to oppose the Western N. C. Railroad. As the News is the only daily in the city engaged in that laudable undertaking of course he meant us.

Now the motives of the News are, as always, for the public good and we are responsible to the public for them. The News will allow no one to impugn its motives. It is willing to compare its motives in opposing the subsidy with those of the Senator from Macon in supporting it.

But let the motives be what they may the NEWS desires to know how its motives in this matter can concern Mr. Robinson.

Is he the Western N. C. R. R. or does the Western N. C. R. R. belong to him, which?

Does he dispute the facts and figures as to the amount of state aid given to said road and the pro rata burden on each county to pay it? If so, he is at liberty to disprove them and these columns are open for his reply.

Granting that he is the road, or the road is his, is the Senate of North Carolina to investigate newspaper motives for publications of facts regarding his road?

Whence does the Senate acquire its power to investigate the motives of the Press or of any body? Are they a new Spanish inquisition? If the motives of the NEWS are to be investigated for publishing facts and figures in regard to this rail road which Mr. Robinson seems to be or which belongs to him, the NEWS demands, in the interest of the freedom of the Press, (for it desires the fullest investigation) that friend Yates of the sterling "Charlotte Democrat," the enterprising "Charlotte Observer," the sturdy "Southern Home," and the editors of the dozen of other papers who are likewise opposing these subsidies be examined as to their motives. Those papers also who are supporting the appropriation, might be examined as to their motives and the committee might wind up with an examination of the motives of the legislators who have taken sides pro and con.

The News is willing to lead off and undergo the inquisition of Mr Dortch's committee if that gentleman will examine all hands. It is a new thing in this country but probably the security of the railroad appropriation and the reputation of Mr. Robinson may require it. But he intimates that some friend of the News made threats if this paper did not get the caucus nomination, it would oppose the subsidy. The News knows very little about the matter except that it saved the people $10,000 by having the price put down and it knows very well that it did not get the printing and is satisfied fully thereat.

An examination of what promises and threats, combinations and wirepulling, was done to affect the result in the democratic caucus if all the facts are fully brought out, might for ought the News knows make a very readable book pressibly but what has the Senate of North Carolina to do with it?

The action of the caucus did not have to be passed upon by a vote of the Legislature. That body does not elect a Printer. The printing is awarded by a committee which was already appointed when the caucus met. The Democratic caucus express their preference to the democratic majority on said committee, which they can obey or not, as they like.

Is the State Senate to take official notice of the democratic caucus and redress any alleged breach of its discipline? If Mr. Robinson had introduced his resolution into the democratic caucus in a reasonable time, probably that body might have investigated the matter.

When Mr. Anderson, of Clay, was investigated some years ago it was proper. He was a member and had threatened that his vote as a member on a public bill would be effected by the Printing result.

The NEWS could make no such threat as it is not a member.

This paper emphatically repeats that it has made no such threat as mentioned by Mr. Robinson, nor has any one else by its authority or with its knowledge.

The whole object of the resolution, if it did not proceed from the gentleman's agitation, is to break the force of our facts and figures upon the appropriation to the road which he is, or which is his.

If the Legislature is to investigate caucus matters it is pertinent to ask why has Mr Robinson waited so long Why did he not make outcry at the time or did he stoop a little?

SOMETHING has been said about carrying the war into Africa. The NEWS thought the war was carried into Africa when enough negro votes were captured to pass the Coalfields Railroad $50,000 subsidy

Rawley's Bill.

The friends of the W. N. C. R R should moderate their demands in these hard times and accept Mr. Rawley's bill which comes up in the House to-day. That provides that the $55,000 now in the Treasury to the credit of that company and undrawn shall be used by them but repeals the $70,000 appropriation for the next two years. The $65,000 will buy iron as far as the track is likely to go in the next two years. Why then levy and collect $140,000 more for that purpose before it will be needed.

University Normal School.

We gladly announce to the teachers of the State that the General Assembly has with almost unanimous voices continued the University Normal School. The members said that "Retrenchment and Reform" should not deprive the educators of North Carolina of their opportunity for improvement in their noble professions. We learn that the next session will begin at about the usual time in June. The programme will be published in April.

MR SHACKELFORD'S bill to divide out the convicts so as to give those sections which furnish the convicts and pay the taxes some share in their labor was up in the Senate last night but could not pass without an amendment that the Western N. C. R. R. should have its pick of the 500 hands. There's patriotism! Mr. Shackelford said that if the other parts of the State was to be postponed till the Western Roads were all finished first it would be 50 years before they got a convict.

IT is said that an enterprising hotelist proposes to erect a hotel on the banks of the now famous "mudcut." Then the large and increasing number of those who are constantly asking what is the cause of the hard times and "where has all the money gone to" can go there and look upon the hole where it has disappeared. Wake county alone has sent nearly $20,000 there in the last two years and it now looks as if it had to continue it.

THE NEWS is decidedly not opposed to the building of any railroad anywhere in North Carolina. But it doubts the propriety of voting public money to pay R. R. debts or to build R. R's. without any sinking fund being provided to secure the road from passing into the hands of the mortgage bondholders when completed.

HOW IS IT that the State is only able to pay her own debts at a compromise of one dollar in seven but has been ordered (by a minority vote in in each House) to pay the debts of a railroad 12 to 18 per cent. per annum besides, to say nothing of $6 000 fees for the railroad's lawyers? Plain people can't understand it.

The wise man of old said pathetically:

"I looked and behold I had no profit of all my labor that I took under the sun," and yet he was not taxed to pay railroad subsidies and 12 to 18 per cent. interest on railroad debts.

How must it fare with those who are?

THESE railroad appropriations are not the Democratic party and their friends cannot be allowed to say that to oppose the subsidies is attacking the party. It is the safety of the party to oppose them.

THE Republicans will make a desperate effort to carry this State in 1880. They will nominate their best State ticket. We must put our house in order by retrenching salaries and railroad appropriations not by adding to them.

MR NICHOLSON'S amendment to require some work to be done on the Yadkin Valley end of the Coalfields road was voted down. Evidently the long drawn out name was a device to catch votes.

THE Senate of North Carolina has appointed, at Mr. Robinson's instance, a committee to investigate an alleged breach of discipline of the Democratic caucus. So there is something new under the sun.

THE fight of the people against railroad corporations and subsidies, like their fight for freedom from other tyrannies:

"Though baffled oft, is ever won."

THE waving pine trees of the East, trembling in the breeze, shall waft the story and whisper as they sigh "Toil on, toil on, ye sons of labor, railroad subsidies and railroad debts must be paid and your daily sweat must pay them."

OF ALL the tyrannies the domination of a railroad clique that equires political control is the most merciless. They grasp with a hand of iron and wring with an arm of steel.

THE "North Carolina system" so-called was hopelessly and forever shattered when the North Carolina Railroad was leased.

THE Legislative 60 days expire Saturday night. It is not likely that a quorum will remain after that.

AT 12 o'clock to-day the Radical party pass out of power in the National Congress—never to regain it.

NORTH CAROLINA says to the bird of prey perched above her Treasury door:

"Take your beak from out my heart, and take your form from off my door."
Shall he reply, "Nevermore?"

"As I was going down the mud-cut road
"I met a tarapin and a toad,
"And ev'ry time the ta apin sing,
"The toad, he cut the pigeon wing."

It can be said of the flow of money out of the State Treasury into mudcut:

"Men may come and men may go,
"But I flow on forever."

Is IT consistency to publicly advocate retrenchment and privately haunt the lobbies to increase the salaries allowed in the Senate Bill?

THE advocates of high salaries and high taxes will see the whale when they get home.

DID you go to see the whale?

The Agricultural Department.

Correspondence of the News.

Permit me, an humble citizen and an humble citizen and voter, to thank you for your able defence of this Department. It seems strange passing strange to me, that any Department controlled and directed by such a board, as our Board of Agriculture, composed of Governor Vance, K. P. Battle, T. M. Holt, S. M. Alexander, W. G. Kerr, J. R. Thigpen and J. M. Evans, should be accused by a sensible Democrat in this State of extravagance and spending the money of the Department of Agriculture, not for the benefit of the farming interest of the State, but for other purposes, is beyond all human belief; but such is the fact.

Take this Board collectively or individually and nowhere in this State, certainly, and I do not believe in any other State, can be found, a more honest, intelligent, capable, purer set of men and gentlemen more devoted to the interest of the Department, which they direct and control, than these gentleman. To anyone who is acquainted with these gentlemen, it is almost beyond belief, that any man could have the cheek, to make any accusation of misconduct against them. They have done their duty faithfully and well, from the very begining. when they elected the able, industious, honest, devoted, and conscientious Commissioner Col. L. L. Polk and the faithful, honest, cultivated intelligent, genial, Capt. J. J. Robinson, Treasurer and Secretary of the Department. The board started on its errand without any precedent, without any experience, being the first Board of the kind ever established in the State. The board may have made some petty mistakes, but as to doing anything wrong or misappropriating the funds of the Department or ignoring the interest of the farmers of the State; it is utterly impossible and the bare supposition of their having done so, are absurdity.

This board and the commissioners have laid a good foundation for this department and the prosperity of the Agricultural interests of the State, which will be duly proved if time is given in which to do the work and the department is not disabled and ruined before it has time to do very much. I beg leave through your columns to return my sincere thanks to Messrs. Ardry, Foard, Ethridge and others of the House, for their able, manly and patriotic defence of this department. Would that every member of the House were as capable of appreciating this department and its work as these gentlemen. In conclusion permit me to state that I have no personal interest whatever in this department, except what is common to every citizen, the prosperity of the agricultural intest of my State. AGRICOLA.

Is There no Remedy?

Correspondence of the News.

OLD FAIR GROUND,
March 1st, 1879.

Is there no way to put a stop to persons carrying guns and pistols at night? On last Friday night some person fired a gun near the residence of Mr. G. L. Watson, on Davie street, opposite the old Fair grounds, and the ball passed through his front door, and also went through the ceiling and weatherboarding on the opposite side of the room, and passed on to where your correspondent knoweth not. It passed over his wife's sisters head, who was lying on a trundle bed, with his little baby boy, near the centre of the room. Had any of the inmates been standing in its way they would have certainly been instantly killed. Now this practice of shooting on the old Fair grounds is no new thing. It has been going on for years; but such careless shooting as this ought to be stopped. But how is it to be stopped is the question. Has the Mayor no authority in the premises? The peaceable portion of the residents in that part of the town abhor such conduct, and greatly desire that a speedy stop be put to it. In fact they would be willing to do almost anything that is honorable to have it stopped. After laboring hard all day we don't feel able to sit up all night and police our homes against these night-prowlers and miscreants, who have nothing else to do but make night hideous with their yells and shooting. Every man, be he white or black, who carries a pistol, except on his own premises, ought to be tied up and struck thirty-nine, and then imprisoned in the Penitentiary, at hard labor, with a ball and chain, for twelve months. No one but rowdies and cowards carry concealed weapons. Can't you help us to put a stop to this night shooting, Mr. Editor? If you will, you will merit and receive the thanks of all the peaceable citizens in this community.

RESIDENT.

The Advantage of Hornless Cattle.

At the exposition in Paris recently there was a prize of $500 for the best herd of cattle bred outside of France by one exhibitor. For this prize a herd of Angus polls took the first, a herd of Angus polls took the second, and a herd of short-horns from England took the third. It has been said by short-horn men that the best English herds were not represented there, but the fact is, that Lady Pigot's herd that took the third premium was as well and fashionably bred as any in England, and the show of short-horns was most excellent. As a still greater triumph there was a prize of $500 for the best beef producing gronp embracing animals from all counties, and the Angus polls were again the winners. On this class there was a jury of 31 members and out of that number 24 were for the Angus and 7 for the short-horns. These are facts that may be taken as conclusive that the introduction of good representatives of this family into this country is in no sense a doubtful experiment. As beef makers they are certainly in quantity equal and in quality superior to our short-horns; as breeders they are more prolific, and to withstand our wintry blasts, they are more hardy. With a cargo of hornless cattle for either railroad or ocean travel, and whether for one mile or a thousand, the danger of accidents is greatly reduced, the sufferings of the animals is greatly ameliorated, the facilities and convenience of the keepers are greatly improved, the animals reach their destination, not severed with sufferings and torn with the unwilling horns of their neighbors, but comparatively fresh and in good condition. There is a large percentage here in favor of the polled cattle that the shipper will be prompt to recognize in the prices he pays, and every man with a heart will rejoice at so great an abatement of the cruelties we witness every day.—New England Farmer.

Railroad Freights.

Chatham Record.

We trust that our Legislature, before its adjournment, will pass a law forbidding Railroad companies from discriminating against local freights. This unjust discrimination against local freights by Railroad Companies is a matter which should by all means be stopped, and we call upon our legislators to take action upon it at once. It is an outrage which should no longer be tolerated, and an unjust burden from which our people should be speedily relieved. Its gross injustice will readily be seen by simply citing a few instances. We will begin right here at home. The Merchants of this place are charged a higher rate on their goods if they are delivered at Moncure, than if they are carried on to Fayetteville via Sanford then brought back from Sandford to Egypt—being transported nearly 100 miles farther! At Franklinton on the R. & G. R. R, cotton is sent to Raleigh (28 miles distant) and then comes right back by Franklinton on to Norfolk cheaper than if sent direct from Franklinton to Norfolk. At Concord, in Cabarrus county, the Merchants have their goods sent to Charlotte and then brought back to Concord cheaper than if they were stopped at Concord. And such instances might be cited on every Railroad in the State. Why, actually in some sections along the Carolina Central Railroad, wagon trains are running in successful opposition to the Locomotive!

Now, this should not be so, and it is within the power (as certainly it is the duty) of the Legislature to apply a remedy. Let them follow the example of the Wisconsin Legislature, which five years ago took this matter in hand and passed what is known as the "Potter Law." This law limited the rate to be charged by Railroad Companies for the transportation of persons and things, and thus relieved the people of that State from a great and unjust grievance. Of course the Railroad Companies opposed it most strenuously, contending that such a law was unconstitutional, and carried a case before the Courts; and finally the United States Supreme Court affirmed the constitutionality and validity of the law, and the people triumphed over the Railroads! The Supreme Court held that, "Property becomes clothed with a public interest when used in a manner to make it of public consequence and affect the community at large. When, therefore, one devotes his property to a use in which the public has an interest, he in effect grants to the public an interest in that use, and must submit to be controlled by the public for the common good, to the extent of the interest he has thus created. He may withdraw his grant by discontinuing the use; but so long as he maintains the use, he must submit to the control." The Court goes on to say still further: "In countries where the common law prevails, it has been customary from the time immemorial for the Legislature to declare what shall be a reasonable compensation under such circumstances." The compensation or toll of all public Millers is regulated by the Legislature, and why not then the compensation of Railroads? They are the creatures of the Legislature, and owe their very existence to legislative enactments. They are public highways, in a certain sense; and should not be allowed to be operated so as to injure instead of benefitting the public. We write this in no spirit of hostility to Railroads, but simply to denounce a glaring injustice daily practiced upon our people We believe that Railroads are of great benefit, and tend greatly to the building up and development of any country, and that is just what we wish them to do, and not oppress the public.

We hope the Legislature will act upon this matter. It will be of more real, substantial benefit than all their "retrenchment" Since Wisconsin legislated on this question other States have followed her example, and this winter our sister State, South Carolina, passed a similar law, protecting her citizens from these unjust freights. Will not then the Legislature of North Carolina do as much for the citizens of "the Old North State?" We will see!

Indignant.

Concord Sun.

One third of the taxes paid by the people of Cabarrus last year to the State went so the Western railroad; and now one-fourth is to be added for this other road. This is retrenchment, isn't it? The Legislature may think they are fooling the people, and that they can "throw dust in their eyes" by cutting down the fees and salaries of clerks, sheriffs, jailors, &c., but this is all "bosh." This is a Legislature of farmers, as they boast. We expected better things of them. We think our representatives voted nay on these appropriations; and well for them if they did. One thing is certain, the places which know the present Legislature will soon know the majority of them no more forever.

Not Reformers.

Lincoln News.

But instead of being reformers, that august body have been making appropriations from the treasury of the State for railroads; and to accomplish these appropriations, it is now charged that a combination was made with the Republican members of the Senate to give them colored magistrates if they would vote for the railroad.

Enough.

The sum of $2.750 is enough for the treasurer, and we do not see why he cannot also very well discharge the duties as treasurer of the penal and charitable institutions of the State. Two thousand dollars is likewise sufficient for the secretary, while $1,750 is about as much as the auditor earns, year in and year out.—Charlotte Observer.

Treason.

Wilmington Star.

But it is treason for a tax-payer to complain. No man can dare question the infallibles without being accused of demagogism. The fellows that charge home heaviest against reformers are not those who pay the taxes. Mark that.

Broken Promises.

Alamance Gleaner.

Economy, retrenchment and reform have been the promises made in every campaign, and, by the magic of these words and faith in these promises, popular strength has been won. The present Legislature is perhaps more devoted to the oft declared policy of party, than any of its predecessors. It has been in session much more than half the time for which it can, under the constitution, receive pay, and yet it has really done nothing for the material interest of the people.

Vegetine

FOR

CHILLS, SHAKES,

FEVER AND AGUE.

TARBORO, N. C., 1878.

DR. H. R. STEVENS:—

Dear Sir,—I feel very grateful for what your valuable medicine, Vegetine, has done in my family. I wish to express my thanks by informing you of the wonderful cure of my son also, to let you know that Vegetine is the best medicine I ever saw for Chills, Shakes, Fever and Ague. My son was sick with measles in 1873, which left him with Hip-Joint disease. My son suffered a great deal of pain, all of the time; the pain was so great he did nothing but cry. The doctors did not help him a particle, he could not lift his foot from the floor, he could not move without crutches. I read your advertisement in the "Louisville Courier-Journal," that Vegetine was a great Blood Purifier and Blood Food. I tried one bottle, which was a great benefit. He kept on with the medicine, gradually gaining. He has taken eighteen bottles in all, and he is completely restored to health, walks without crutches or cane. He is twenty years of age. I have a young son, fifteen years of age, who is subject to chills. Whenever he feels one coming on, he comes in, takes a dose of Vegetine and that is the last of the Chill. Vegetine leaves no bad effect upon the system like the most of the medicines recommended for Chills. I cheerfully recommend Vegetine for such complaints. I think it is the greatest medicine in the world.

Respectfully, MRS. J. W. LLOYD.

VEGETINE.—When the blood becomes lifeless and stagnant, either from change of weather or of climate, want of exercise, irregular diet, or from any other cause, the Vegetine will renew the blood, carry off the putrid humors, cleanse the stomach, regulate the bowels, and impart a tone of vigor to the whole body.

feb 13 tf W. C. McMACKIN,

Dread and despair fall upon the community when a terrible epidemic, like the cholera or yellow fever, suddenly desolates our homes; yet, all the while, a more insidious, but no less fatal foe, enters thousands of households every year and carries off the flower of the family in the early flush of manly youth and budding womanhood. People call it presumption, or "decline." It is not, in most cases, the tubercular phthisis or consumption of the lungs, which is the peculiar malady in climates like those of the British Islands and New England, but a general decay or arrest of the vital processes of nutrition. All the doctors agree that there is no remedy for this but COD LIVER OIL, but they are constantly met by the obstacle of inability on the part of the patient to swallow or retain it. This repulsion is entirely overcome by SCOTT'S EMULSION OF THE OIL with the HYPOPHOSPHITES OF LIME AND SODA which is agreeable to the taste, and an unequaled nutrient and tonic for the body nerves and brain.

Sanford's Higher Analytical Arithmetic, 16mo., 419 pp. Half roan, Cloth sides, $1.25.

The definitions are clear, and the analyses exhaustive. The work is practical, and abounds in slate exercises. The experience of a large number of the best teachers in this country is back of Sanford in hand, pupils discover an unwonted enthusiasm in studying the science of numbers.

The Complete Series of Worcester's Dictionaries.

A Chinaman never swears when he gets mad because there are no "cuss words," in his dictionary. He simply upsets his washtub, butts the bottom out, kicks a dog and feels better.

And in his labors never ends,
Bargains he'll give you when you call
For No. 10 is all and all.

And only ask for No. 10,
Kept by the most ingenious of men,
And when his friends by chance drop in
Then forth he comes, Lord what a grin,
And to their wondering eyes displays
Such heaps of brackets and window shades.
His pictures are exposed to public view
And a variety of cord to suspend them too,
His looking glasses and toilet cases
Will help adornyour forms and faces;
Picture frames and mouldings too
In great variety, black, brown and blue.
His window cornices and lambrequins fine,

And wishes a happy new year too.

LIVER

This important organ weighs but about three pounds, and all the blood in a living person (about three gallons) passes through it at least once every half hour, to have the bile and other impurities strained or filtered from it. Bile is the natural purgative of the bowels, and if the Liver becomes torpid it is not separated from the blood, but carried through the veins to all parts of the system, and in trying to escape through the pores of the skin, causes it to turn yellow or a dirty brown color. The stomach becomes diseased, and Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation, Headache, Biliousness, Jaundice, Chills, Malarial Fevers, Piles, Sick and Sour Stomach, and general debility follow. MERRELL'S HEPATINE, the great vegetable discovery for torpidity, causes the Liver to throw off from one to two ounces of bile each time the blood passes through it, as long as there is an excess of bile; and the effect of even a few doses upon yellow complexion or a brown dirty looking skin, will astonish all who try it—they being the first symptoms to disappear. The cure of all bilious diseases and Liver complaint is made certain by taking HEPATINE in accordance with directions. Headache is generally cured in twenty minutes, and no disease that arises from the Liver can exist if a fair trial is given.

No greater wrong can be done than to say that Consumption is incurable. GLOBE FLOWER COUGH SYRUP will cure it when all other means have failed. Also, Colds, Cough, Asthma, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and lungs. Read the testimonials of the Hon. Alexander H. Stephens, Gov. Smith and Ex-Gov Brown of Ga., Hon. Geo. BLOOD

Grave mistakes are made in the treatment of all diseases that arise from poison in the blood. Not one case of Scrofula, Syphilis, White Swelling, Ulcerous Sores and Skin Disease, in a thousand, is treated without the use of Mercury in some form. Mercury rots the bones, and the diseases it produces are worse than any other kind of blood or skin disease can be. Dr. PEMBERTON'S STILLINGIA AND YELLOW DOCK DELIGHT is the only remedy in the world that has the hope of recovery from Mercurial, Syphilitic diseases is ably founded, and the cure Cancer. $10,000 will be paid to the proprietors of Mercury, or any ingredient not purely vegetable and harmless can be found in it.

CONGRESS.

The Senate, when on motion to reconsider the bill of making the appropriation to pay the arrears of pensions, was agreed to, Hoar offered an amendment that no pension should ever be paid under this act to Jefferson Davis, the late President of the so-called Southern Confederacy. Hoar said the name in his proviso had not been singled out by any selection of his own, or from any person who agreed with him politically. The name had been selected by Davis himself, by his own act in the marked and conspicuous character—by an attack on the life of his country which educated him. That gentleman had never given utterance to an expression of regret for such an attack. Nor had he followed the example of so many of his associates by asking Congress to remove his political disabilities. He spurned the clemency of the Republic to-day. It was now proposed to put the name of this person, whose treason had not been repented of, on the pension rolls of the country, and to tax the loyal widows and orphans to pay the pension.

Garland said he did not know what the motive of the Senator from Massachusetts had in introducing his amendment, but it was a curious spectacle to exhibit to the American people at this late hour of the day, while the Government pensions Longstreet by the small postoffice in Georgia. A Republican administration sent Gov. Orr as minister to Russia, and Mosby, who boasted he was Marion in second war, to China as consul. He felt satisfied that Jefferson Davis would scorn the pension. That gentleman did not ask it. He had served under Mr. Davis in a civil capacity. Mr. Davis was a gallant soldier in the Mexican war. His services were on record and although they did not surpass them yet equalled those of Greece and Rome.

Mr. Shields took a different view from both sides. He thought that by singling out Jefferson Davis from ten millions of people in the South was giving them a distinction greater than he deserved.

Baney said the country was to-day longing and asking for peace and he appealed to Senators on the other side to do nothing to prevent it. The people of the South having lost all in the war were poor and they desired to restore their industries.

Maxey briefly spoke of the services rendered by Davis in the Mexican war and said he would have it for those who fought with him to pass the judgment on the amendment of the Senator from Massachusetts, Mr. Thurman said that the amendment asked him single out Jefferson Davis for punishment when other men who went as far as he did were not only not punished but have been appointed to the highest stations in the Government and in this connection he mentioned the names of Akerman, formerly United States Attorney General, the present Post Master General Key, General Longstreet, Post Master at Gainesville and Mosby, of guerilla fame, all and many others of the same class being appointed by Republican administrations. He saw on the bench two men who were actively engaged in the confederate service who were just as guilty as Jefferson Davis. The proposition before them came from the Senator of the State of Massachusetts, whose treason had been more violent and longer than that of any other State in the Union.

Thurman did not want to pick out Jefferson Davis as martyr when all others who had acted with him walk the earth unchallenged.

Mr. Lamar replying, to Hoar said he must confess his surprise and regret that the senator from Massachusetts should have wantonly without provocation flung this insult. Chairman Edmunds called the senator to order for this language. Lamar—I suppose it is in order to fling insults but out of order for those who are insulted to hurl back the blow. I appeal from the decision of the chair. The question being taken the decision of the chair was overruled—yeas 15, nays 27. Lamar proceeded eulogizing Davis and protesting against attempts to single him out for obliging from the body of Southern people who had chosen him for their leader in a cause warlike to him and all his followers. Debate was continued by Blaine, Hoar, Lamar and others. Chandler said that 18 years ago he and Davis came to the Senate together, and both at that time swore to support the Constitution of the United States. Davis had come from Pierce's Cabinet and when he took the oath there was treason in his heart and perjury on his lips, he took the oath to support a Government he meant to overthrow. He, Chandler considering the conduct of Davis during the war did not expect to hear eulogies on Jefferson Davis on the floor of the Senate, he was surprised to hear them especially as every man woman and child in the North believe Jeff. Davis to be a double-dyed traitor. Coke said that Davis was not worse than he was and very many other of Southern people who selected him as leader. He was not ashamed to vote for Davis any more than he was to vote for any other man or on any other subject. I was, said Mr. Coke as much of a rebel as Jeff Davis. After further discussion in which Messrs. Gordon, Wingom, Ransom and Beck participated, the last named saying that Mexican veteran amendment was voted in with aid of the eight republican votes and that bill was passed with fourteen Republicans voting for it. But for the Republicans he wanted it to be understood that the bill would now be the law of the land. Hoar's amendment to exclude Jefferson Davis was agreed to, 23 to 22. Vote then taken on the amendment of shields to pension the Mexican veterans as amended on motion of Hoar was disagreed to 20 to 25. The bill then passed, 44 to 3, Allison then reported that the conference committee on Legislative Executive and Judicial appropriation bill, unable to agree, a new committee was appointed. He also made a report from the Electoral Committee exonerating Stanley Matthews from Connection with any or real or supposed frauds in the election in Louisiana and that he has not been guilty of corrupt conduct in any of the matters referred to in the testimony, but his action in respect to Jas. E. Andersons effort to obtain the appointment to office under circumstances as wrong and injurious to public interest.

On motion of Gordan the Senate took up the resolutions of the House in respect to the death of Julian Hartridge of Georgia offered further resolutions, of respect and delivered eulogy on the character of the deceased. Followed by Booth and Lamar in a few appropriate remarks. Resolutions agreed to and the Senate at 6:40 adjourned till 1 p. m.

The amendments of the House to the Census bill were agreed to and the bill passed.

The Conference report on the fortification and appropriation bill was agreed to and the bill passed.

The bill making appropriations for the payment of claims reported by the Southern Claims Commission was passed.

Allison, of Iowa, from the Conference committee on the deficiency appropriation bill submitted a report, but Edmunds objected to its present consideration and stated that he wanted time to examine it. Subsequently he withdrew his objection, and the report was agreed to. No explanation of the bill as agreed upon was made.

Windom, of Minnesota, from the Conference committee on the Sundry Civil appropriation bill submitted a report but objection was made to its present consideration by Edmunds and it was laid aside temporarily.

WASHINGTON, March 2.—HOUSE.—The House met at 9:30 this morning, in continuance of Saturday's session, and after receiving the Sundry Civil bill from the Senate non-concurring in the Senate amendments appointing a committee of conference consisting of Atkins, Hewitt, of N. Y. Hale took further recess until 10:30. At that time Atkins stated that the Conference Committee on the Civil Sundry bill would probably come to an agreement and upon his motion the House took further recess until nine o'clock p. m.

After the executive session at midnight last night the doors were opened and the Senate proceeded to consider the Legislative and Judicial appropriation bill. The Senate voted on the amendment of the committee striking out that part of bill as it came from the House fixing the pay of jurors in the Federal Courts at two dollars per diem and repealing the test oaths of jurors. The Senate struck out this clause, yeas 31 nays 27. The Senate also struck out, yeas 29 nays 26, remaining clause repealing that part of the revised statutes providing for the supervisors and deputy marshals of elections. The amendment of the committee paying southern claims commissioners at the rate of 5,000 per annum each instead of $2,500 and other less important amendments were agreed to.

The Senate struck out the section of the bill proposing to consolidate the coast and interior surveys according to the plan of the national academy of sciences. The bill at four o'clock was passed. The Senate then took up the river and harbor bill, but without proceeding with its consideration, took recess until two o'clock p. m.

The Committee on Conference had previously been appointed on the Legislative, Judicial and Executive appropriation bill, and on the Sundry Civil bill.

HOUSE.—The House spent the first hours this morning in disposing of some of the business on the speaker's table. Bills in relation to the Northern Pacific and Kansas Pacific Railroad were referred to the committee of the whole

Bills relating to homestead settlements on public lands within railroad limits were passed.

The conference report on the fortification bill was presented and agreed to.

The House has now before it under strict party vote, a report of the committee on expenditures in the State Department for the impeachment of Geo. F. Seaward.

The reports of the Conference Committees on the Sundry bill, the fortification bill and the river and harbor bill have been adopted by the House, and a recess has been taken until 9 o'clock to-night.

Our country is getting to be fearfully alarming, the average of life being lessened every year, without any reasonable cause, death resulting generally from the most insignificant origin. At this season of the year especially, a cold is such a common thing that in the hurry of every day life we are apt to overlook the dangers attending it and often find too late that a fever or lung trouble has already set in. Thousands lose their lives in this way every winter, while had Boschee's German Syrup been taken, a cure would have resulted, and a large bill from a doctor been avoided. For all diseases of the throat and lungs, Boschee's German Syrup has proven itself to be the greatest discovery of its kind in medicine. Every Druggist in this country will tell you of its wonderful effect. Over 950,000 bottles sold last year without a single failure known.

To the Readers of this Paper.

Most of you are familiar with our "Bible Propositions" which have been published in this paper for over two months. We are glad to know, that several hundred of you have already availed yourselves of its benefits, and realized, to some extent, the wonderful virtues of the "Seven Springs Mass." Being induced to try it on account of the fairness of the proposition. We fully expected some few would demand the "Prize." Thus far not one has put in a claim. On the contrary, we have been the recipients of "Bibles," and other tokens of appreciation expressive of gratitude and acknowledgments for having called their attention to the remedy.

Our object for making that offer, was not merely to relieve headaches, for that which many regard as a case of headache, is in reality only a symptom of more serious and complicated diseases, it was therefore, more to reach these complaints, (the names of which we dislike to publish in news papers.) Knowing if the Mass was properly used for headache, the patient would discover its great value for other diseases, and we are glad to say, the plan has succeeded well, as evidenced from hundreds of correspondents, and the rapidly increasing demand for the Mass—and is being sold by all Druggists.

A Remedy that has been Remedied.

The invincible repugnance felt by almost every one to the smell and flavor of cod Liver Oil, has prevented tens of thousands of the victims of debility from reaping the benefits of its peculiar healing and nutritive properties. The almost hopeless consumptive, the martyr to Rheumatism, the barely living shadow of men, women and children that emerge from the clutches of malarial fevers, all of these know, or at least their doctors know, that of all discovered remedies, this Oil is the best and often the only one that will build up their wasted bodies and restore their shattered nerves, and far more effective than the Oil by itself is Scott's Emulsion of it, with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda. This is the purest and most natural food and medicine in the world, and wholly deprived of its disagreeable qualities. Sold by Wm. Simpson, Druggist.
